1. Acceptance of the Policies on Service Delivery Terms and Conditions

- 1.1 When ticking the acceptance button at the time of registration with the Institute of Energy Professionals Africa (IEPA) or any of its authorized partners, or when you submit a request for invoice, or when entering any of IEPA's online platforms, the delegate acknowledges that they have read, understood and accept that they are bound by the Policies for Service Delivery Terms and Conditions of IEPA as is detailed in this Policy Handbook of Service Delivery Terms and Conditions valid at the date of use, and updated from time to time, available on IEPA's website under Resources iepa.org.za/resources for perusal.
- 1.2 This policy must be read in conjunction with existing Memorandum of Understandings, Service Level Agreements, or any other contracts that may exist with annexures. All bookings received by IEPA becomes a contractual agreement to be entered to the selected program, whereafter this policy applies.
- 1.3 This policy is applicable to all delegates, examinees, training partners, clients, organisations, funders and sponsors which fully covers the IEPA service delivery terms and conditions.
- 1.4 Ignorance of this policy may limit success or the availability of benefits included in the packages purchased from IEPA and result in additional charges and/or penalties and interest fees.
- 1.5 This policy is effective from the date of acceptance by the IEPA Board of Directors whereafter all terms in the policy become immediately effective.

2. Policy on Delegate Responsibility

- 2.1 IEPA programs are of the highest standards and require commitment from delegates. As an organization, IEPA and its partners and staff endeavour to provide the best services to our abilities to assist delegates in achieving success.
- 2.2 Delegates are required to increase the potential for success by:
  - 2.2.1 Reading all required information provided
  - 2.2.2 Complying with Guidelines and Rules provided
  - 2.2.3 Being in class on time and focus on the work at hand
  - 2.2.4 Preparing for examinations adequately
  - 2.2.5 Adhering to required deadlines
- 2.3 Delegates remain responsible for ensuring they are in good standing with IEPA and its partners to have access to the procured services and benefits from IEPA, and its affiliates and partners.

3. Policy on Payment Terms and Conditions

- 3.1 Payment terms are strictly prior to service delivery by submitting, in writing, proof of payment cleared in the bank, or a valid purchase order, or per prior mutually agreed contract terms.

- 3.2 All quotations and invoices exclude country-specific taxes, transfer fees and bank charges - IEPA retains the right to reflect the outstanding balance of fees on its statements as short payment with the balance owing as per the Policy Handbook on Service Delivery Terms and Conditions.
- 3.3 All prices are exclusive of VAT, country-specific taxes, transfer fees and bank charges.
- 3.4 Delegates on sponsored programs or corporate funded programs remain personally responsible to ensure their account is in good standing for exam results and certificates to be released.
- 3.5 Terms and conditions on invoices issued summarise the most important points, the Policy Handbook on Service Delivery Terms and Conditions always apply and is available on the website.

4. Policy on Overdue Accounts

- 4.1 Interest will accrue on invoices more than thirty (30) days outstanding, from the date of invoice at a rate of 24% per annum, or 2% per month – unless prior arrangement has been mutually agreed to as per contract terms.
- 4.2 IEPA reserves the right to withhold exam results, and/or any certificates, website listings, revocation of Certification for delegates and customers not in good standing for whatever reason.
- 4.3 Further service delivery will be restricted until a delegate is in good standing with IEPA, its affiliates and its partners.
- 4.4 IEPA will issues sales orders as a preference to avoid unnecessary interest accruals prior to the start of an event, invoices will automatically be generated once the event has started with the Policy on Overdue Accounts coming into play.

5. Policy on Non-Payment

- 5.1 Delegates who fail to pay their accounts within nine (9) months from the first day of service delivery, or delegates who fail to adhere to the approved payment plan as arranged with the finance department, will result in the certificates to be withdrawn and further services may only be taken once the account is fully settled including interest and all taxes and transfer fees.
- 5.2 Partners and affiliates who fail to pay their accounts within ninety days (90) months from the first day of the service delivery, or who fail to adhere to the approved payment plan as arranged with the finance department, will result in their Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) being cancelled with thirty (30) day notice without the option to renew until management change takes place, and only if an application round is successfully passed.

6. Policy on Cancellations

- 6.1 Cancellation of programs and services must be received in writing within Central African Time working hours.
- 6.2 Cancellations where:

- 6.2.1 manuals have already been printed
- 6.2.2 manuals that have already been shipped
- 6.2.3 certification application has been processed
- 6.2.4 renewal application has already been processed will incur service fees due by the delegate, or company, or partner, or sponsoring organization at a percentage of the original invoiced amount, plus associated costs such as the cost of printing the manual, shipping and return shipping fees, as well as any clearance fees and taxes and duties leveraged from IEPA. Also refer to the clause on when cancellation fees will apply.

- 6.3 Cancellation fees will be due by the invoiced party within thirty (30) days from the day of cancellation invoice issued.
- 6.4 Refunds will be executed by IEPA within thirty (30) days of cancellation on presentation of bank confirmation letter for the refund account. Refunds may only be paid to the party that made the original payment.
- 6.5 Cancellation fees will apply as follows:
  - 6.5.1 Cancellation six (6) working days, or earlier, prior to the start of the program or deadline of the service submission as per the published calendar will carry an administration fee of 10% plus the cancellation terms and costs stipulated in the Cancellation Policy.
  - 6.5.2 Cancellation within five (5) working days of the start of the program or deadline of the service submission as per the published calendar will incur a cancellation fee of 20% plus the cancellation terms and costs stipulated in the Cancellation Policy.
  - 6.5.3 No shows on the day of training or cancellation within 36 hours of the training has started will incur a cancellation fee of 50% plus the cancellation terms and costs stipulated in the Cancellation Policy.

7. Policy on Postponement and Rescheduling: Training

- 7.1 Postponement of programs and services must be received in writing and will be applicable within Central African Time working hours.
- 7.2 Postponements will be liable for increases as published and valid at the time that the program or service is postponed or rescheduled to.
- 7.3 Postponements may result in the manual issued for the first program being outdated at the time of training, and a new manual may be requested at the delegates' own cost provided the original issued manual is returned at the delegates' own cost.
- 7.4 Postponements or rescheduling of programs and services will incur the following fees calculated on the original invoice over and above the full program fee:
  - 7.4.1 Postponement or rescheduling ten (10) working days, or earlier, prior to the start of the program or deadline of the service submission as per the published calendar will not carry any fees.
  - 7.4.2 Postponement or rescheduling within five (5) working days of the start of the program or deadline of the service submission as per the published calendar will incur a rescheduling fee of 5% of the total program cost.
  - 7.4.3 No shows on the day of training or Postponement once training has started, and rescheduling requests once the service has started, will incur a Postponement or rescheduling fee of 10% of the total program cost, except in the event of force majeure where any fees will be waived.

8. Policy on Postponement and Rescheduling: AEE Examinations

- 8.1 All examinations must be taken within the pre-approved exam window or exam days which will be no later than 3 months from the program completion date.
- 8.2 Examinations not taken as per the pre-approved days and exam windows will result in a rebooking fee becoming due and a process of invoice request and rebooking registration must be followed.

9. Policy on Registrations

- 9.1 Partner countries: Delegates in countries where existing partner agreements are in place are obliged to book through the partner.
- 9.2 Countries in Sub-Saharan Africa where no partners exist: Delegates must book directly with IEPA.
- 9.3 Out of regional countries: Delegates may enquire to register for AEE programs with IEPA, however AEE permission is required prior to IEPA accepting any booking for an AEE program. IEPA will advise on availability and AEE approvals. Should a booking and payment be made to IEPA for an unauthorized course, IEPA will fully refund the monies less transfer and banking fees and a USD30-00 service fee. Proof of bank letter is required for refund purposes.
- 9.4 For in-person in-class programs, paid at the in-class program fee:
  - 9.4.1 Delegates with special dietary requirements may be subject to additional charges dependent on menu selection available at the time.
  - 9.4.2 Fees exclude travel and accommodation, breakfast, and dinner for delegates. Therefore, delegates must make their own arrangements in this regard.
  - 9.4.3 Black and white manuals are provided on the first day of training at registration, full colour manuals must be pre-arranged at an additional charge.
  - 9.4.4 Late payments may cause a delay in production of manuals and may affect a delegate's experience.
- 9.5 For online programs:
  - 9.5.1 Delegates are responsible for ensuring they have sufficient data and high-speed internet access to complete the program with the required minimum hours.
  - 9.5.2 Delegates must ensure they have computer access with internal or external webcam, and a working microphone to participate in the training and to allow continuous online monitoring and verification of attendance.
  - 9.5.3 Delegates taking international Certification exams remotely must ensure they have the relevant computer equipment, internet access and speed, access permissions, and a suitable exam room as per the ProctorU or remote proctoring service requirements detailed in the Remote Proctoring Guidelines latest version in use at the time of taking the exam.
- 9.6 For Inhouse programs:
  - 9.6.1 Inhouse quotations exclude venue hire, AV equipment, catering for delegates and trainer, travel and accommodation, breakfast, and dinner for delegates, therefore delegates and the customer must make their own arrangements in this regard, unless the quotation specifies these services.

10. Policy on Training Manuals

- 10.1 AEE reserves manuals for delegates who undertake the program only. It is against AEE policy for a person to receive or own a manual without partaking in the program.
- 10.2 All fees include a black and white manual for collection, or a password protected PDF, whichever is applicable as authorized by AEE.
- 10.3 Full colour manuals are available on request and at an additional charge.
- 10.4 No manuals will be printed or shipped without proof of payment in the bank for the full program.
- 10.5 Courier and shipping costs are excluded from the course fee, whether for in-person or online training.
- 10.6 Import duties may be payable by the delegate at the country of receipt. Commercial invoices will be provided for this purpose.
- 10.7 Bookings with proof of payments received within ten (10) working days of the first day of the course may experience delays in acquiring or having a training manual delivered.
- 10.8 Delegates with authorization from AEE or any other copyright body to receive PDF manuals must sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) for Copyright protection prior to receiving the PDF document.
- 10.9 Delegates with PDF manuals understand that printed manuals are required for open book examinations as PDF manuals may not be open on computers when taking exams. Delegates to arrange their own printing and at their own cost.
